MOMENTS THAT MOVED US . . .

Reserved

Dear Cheryl, Well this has been a year
I won't long forget and you neither.
A lot of things have happened between us, some good and some bad, but we've so Han through it all. When I first met you this summer under great circumstances, the deer etc...) I iked you a lot, but I never thought we ould still be together nine months later. (There e you happy? I said nine). This has been a eal special year to me and a big turning point my life. I will be going on to bigger and ther things next year and you will have to ag behind. Hopefully with a little luck and t of love we can make through some more hard nes. You have made my senior year special d hopefully you will do the same for a long time come. If I could do things differently, I would o everything the same except for us being a ittle less excited on New Year's Eve. Other than hat everything has been fine. You really mean a t to me and I love you a whole lot no matter what happens between us. Good luck with your life & hopefully we'll each be a part of each others life forever.
I love you Craig

LAST WILL

I, Missy White, being overworked and undercredited, leave: to underclassmen, hope for a better Sr. year than mine; to Jhon, luck in passing Fresh. Coll. (YOU STUDY!? HA); to Mrs. Baker, all, the, commas, proven, useless, by, "12b."; to Allison, A. B., Angie, Ashley, Beth, Candy, Lars, Melanie, and Penny, Prov. 17:17, OREOS, Purple Rain, and memories with luv; to Penny, rooming, classical music, hope for a boyfriend (T. S.?); to Keith Hickman, Northside's Lot, noz, bum(B), an "otherwise occupied" sign; and to the back parking lot, my flat tires (all 4), and the football.

We, Courtney Tillery and Rachel Allard, being of two minds and bodies, do hereby bequeath to J. Maxwell Mayo the following: the missing mannequin hand from the senior float to continue the "dead fish" tradition as he awaits our return, our locker with all of its stickers, the ability to spend his entire senior year on the outside looking in and laughing, and lastly, all of our love.

, Wilhelm Ritter, being of esoteric mind and ethereal body, leave to the following: to Mr. Nelson, pair of rubberized boots for his continuing journey through the cow pasture of life; to Mrs. Williams, the ability to intimidate; to David, a sense of optimism and the ability to walk without swaying from side to side; to Jeff, enough driving skill to keep him and his mortal passengers alive, as well as my equanimity; to John, a bottle of Absolute to drink on any Sunday of his choice; and to Darryll, height and a slightly used, white car.

, Kelli Eldridge, being of shattered mind and exhausted body, hereby bequeath to the following: to Steven S. Hodges, I leave the '79 Toyota Corolla (complete with luggage rack) so he will not feel inhibited in any way about driving through mud or potholes, or taking the Lewisburg Pike Curve "slightly above the lawful speed"; to Kirsten Harbers, I leave a large supply of Valium to help her calm down; and to B. Clouse, I leave a case of transparencies and a lifetime supply of "Swiss Mocha International Coffee."

, John Wood, of immortal body and abstract mind, bequeath to the following: to my brother Brian, my infallible judgement and immeasurable intellect; to Ix, a group of six, hollow, aluminum cylinders with optional holes at one end, containing effervescing controlled substances, and restrained by polyurethane bands; to Meredith, an infinite supply of "home-made" M&M's; to Dave P., the ability to appreciate other forms of music besides 60's acid rock; to Mrs. Clouse, general kindness; and to Darren R., virility.

, Lisa Hughes, of overused mind and always exhausted body, bequeath: To Shannon M. — the best boyfriend that she could ever want; to Andrienne C. — the right to sit in the front seat; To the annual staff — the ability to turn in pages by the deadline and the ability to surprise everyone by being organized; To my little sister — my somewhat dented car, the right to leave for school whenever she wants, Nov. 21-23 and Jan. 30-Feb. 1, and all my love.

Ve, Marni Greuel, Donna Joslin, and Julie Beyke, being of sound minds and bodacious bodies, do hereby leave all our personal possessions to Dee Brannon so he doesn't have to experiment anymore; to Greg Crocket and Aaron Beaule, our high tolerance levels; to our little sisters, Thonda and Joelle, our great times at FHS; to Hank Gardner, a trust fund to help cover his future car crunches.

the great one Scott "Dr. Love" McClure, leave my bro some innovative farm noises, and outstanding singing voice, intellectual capabilities to comprehend, a return to the Renaissance period and my total devotion to what is required by state law; and to my favorite young ladies, Holly and Stephanie, I leave my body to fulfill their desires.

Denise Carothers, of frustrated mind and svelte body, hereby leave my sister, Rebecca, my ability to stress quiet and at least relative solitude; to Lucille Leach, the ability to say "no" and mean it; to Darrin Kirby and Edgar Roberts the ability to keep people guessing about the extent to which you can go; to the annual staff, the ability to be unpredictable and surprise people with your numerous abilities and talents; and to Shannon Mosteller, the knowledge that Todd does not realize how precious you are!

Beverly Jones, do hereby leave Kathy Koogler my adorable "Rhett" and my good Friend Calvin hoping she will have the same meaningful relationship I once had; to Elizabeth Crosby and Amy Jones I leave the ability to restrain myself from going skinny dipping on deserted islands with "helicopter" men.

Lance Southall, being of lost mind and lifeless body, do leave the following: to Shane Johnson HA HA, you're here for another year; to Edgar Roberts the dumpster for his own; to Kenneth Pratt NOTHING, you deadbeat; to Mrs. Payne the ability to teach your own class now that I'm gone.

We, Tracy Barber and Shannon Williams, do hereby leave to the following: to Rick Maker, some brown shoe polish for his red boots; to Sherry Jackson, the ability to "handle it," a mirror, and a strawberry duck; to Michelle Brinkley, her loving next door neighbor and the ability to "get a grip"; to Jeff Polk, Bambi's FATHER; to Jeff and Tammy, a chicken; to Shannon Mosteller the hope that T. P. will get his act together; to Melisa Goldsberry and Shannon Robb (Fluffy) J. J.'s and a Sit-n-Spin.

I, Scott Grimsley, being of sound mind and able body, bequeath the following: to Tracey and Suzanne the answers to the questions they have about you know what; to Dee B. my running shoes since I won't be needing them any more; to Shawn and Joe the nerve to quit the band; to Scott H. Monday and Thursday nights off.

I, Hardin Bouldin, leave all of my brains, brawn, and bubblegum under Mrs. Baker's desks to B. G. Norheim if he's still here; to Michelle Brinkley, a box of Pampers; to Melissa Humphrey, the ability to make fun of rednecks; to Carrie S., the ability to act stuck up when needed; to everyone in the whole school the right to call Michelle, Pampers, and Carrie, Fuzzy; to B. G. I also leave the Vanderbilt girls and the hot tub and the Marriott Hotel to take back to Norway with him.

We, Beth Canady and Missy White, being of innocent (HA) minds and bodies (double HA), do hereby leave: to Keith Hickman his own chair at lunch and the ability to an A! and E. B., she's all yours; to James and Keith the ability to find warmer blankets on the band bus, and the ability to find a more useful purpose for deer scouting (Hint, Hint); to Laura Cox the ability to always find love and happiness with iguanas.

I, Michelle Tomlin, leave to anyone who thinks they can handle it, my almost perfect driving record; and to Kat I leave my '66 Mustang and the memories (that's about all that is left of it).

We, Amy Rice, Sherrie Shrader, and the Leigh Workman girl, being muskrat-minded, leave to Dawn Morrison the knowledge that even though she will be a senior next year, we will always have seniority over her!; to Paul-o (Kermie), Sherrie's babies, Amy's rings, and Leigh's legs! O!; to Squirt and Squat, the ability to relieve the pressure of high school by reverting back to their childhood like we always did.

I, Malissa Hatcher, being of sound (?) mind and body do hereby leave the following: to Kim, all of the birds that may fly over; to Donna, GM's boots and body; to Yvette, the ability to rid all fleas and ticks; to Stacey, all of my candy and ability to lead a straight life (no more candy stores); to Angela Deal, all of my patience and tolerance; to Ms. Miller, the ability to tolerate next year's journalism class.

I, Russell Sullivan, being of lost mind and body do hereby leave: to Greg Caldwell, the ability to get out of lunch without writing the Constitution; to Jeremy Whidby, the ability to always be able to find things to run over, like Camaros.

I, Ginger R. Goad, being of sound mind and body do hereby bequeath the following: to Jennifer Hassler, the ability to do homework before it's due; to Jessica Mutch, the ability to deal with "Sad Eyes" (use a pillow if necessary); to Andy Ogles, my intelligence; to John Lafon and Jim Basham, my car; to the Mallets, the ability to deal with Jay; to Deanne Plummer, my vibes.

I, Jennifer Anderson, being of sound mind and a rather short body, do hereby bequeath the following: to Pete, the ability to pull the wool over somebody's eyes; to LT, all the lies your sister and I used so you don't have to make up your own; and to Uncle Willie, a memoir of my affair with the Pope.

I, Gary Claiborne, leave to the following: to Michael Fisher, his official "Soccer Players Excuse Handbook" — he needs it back to explain how he scored on his own goalkeeper! But thanks for the use of it!; to Cheryl, a leash.

I, Alison Buscher, being crazy and weird, do hereby bequeath the following: to all those who will take Physics next year, aspirins; to all those who will take Calculus next year, more aspirins; to Little D., a locker that will open; to Debbie and Margret, a permanent locker-shelf; to Margret, money to buy a new wardrobe for you-know-who; to JoAnn, a picture of every guy on the soccer team; to Kendall, glasses to see people who come to the door.

I, Anthony Cymone Smith, leave: to the people of Franklin High, the responsibility to keep Kiki at school; to Riques, a toy Mr. Microphone, my anonymous lover who wrote my name all in the girls restroom; to Larry Davis, my Class A shoes; to Tracey K., my black book; to Jeff Whitsey, a straight jacket; and to Mooney, all the chicken heads.

I, Stace Hickman, being of no mind and skinny body do leave the following: to Derrick Moore, enough frogs to last him through his senior year; to J. D. Inman, the keys to my truck; to Mary Cooper, all the love in the world.

Lynn Woody, being of mixed up mind and out of shape body bequeath the following: to Leigh Woody I leave nothing — BUY YOUR OWN CLOTHES; to Barbee Morgan my love for amusement parks, can we go, huh can we go Mr. Woody?; to next year's band managers NOTHING, the Ryder truck is yours; last but not least, all my love to Rob — my Little Huggums, you're great!

Bobby Teal, of comfortably numbed mind and body leave: to Bonnie, my beloved sister, the remarkable ability to sleep in class, answer "I don't know" to seven questions in a row and still get a decent grade on the test; to Denise W. the willingness and ability to enjoy oneself on a weekend; to Jason M. my school spirits and my inventive mind and inhalation devices and the ability to give the gut test; to Angie W. and Laura B. (3rd period) the ability to bull your way out of anything; and to Corey T. the Assorted Fiest package.

David Kinnard, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave the following: to my sister, Connie, my ability to get to band 5 minutes late and not get caught; to my cousin, April, my lunch ticket (HA! HA!); to Stacey Brown my ability to give "avicious cut"; and to Melissa my ability to "do what you wanna do."

Elizabeth Randolph, being of somewhat learned mind and body, do hereby bequeath the following: All of my Bio. II notes to the future classes of Ms. Cusak (to me Ms. Clouse) in hopes that they will get lucky like me and pass with a "B", my locker to Kirsten H. with all of its decor, A year's supply of hall passes for those unlucky souls who don't ever make it to class on time. M. W. to S. G. Coki: Party-harty!

We, Tricia Caste, Toynia Bianchini, and Angela Mazeal, being of air headed minds and awesome bodies, do hereby bequeath: to Liz Wamsley, a yellow yield sign saying "Spaz On Board," and a plastic UT cup to hold a collection of fees for rides in the Party Wagon; to Kristy Fraley, spray-on deodorant to prevent those noticeable D-balls; to Brian Chriske, Shawn Cassidy's Greatest Hits to cruise to in his Chrysler; to Brice Harrison, plenty of patience in dealing with obnoxious women on the golf course.

Taja Linn Miller, being of misused mind and undesirable body, do hereby bequeath to the following: to Kendall and Joanne, one last road trip in 20 degree weather with the top down shivering to the beat of Motley; to Amy Jones, a chance at all my ex-lovers, maybe they will lust her like they did myself; to Jenni Hancock, every little piece of tape on Mrs. Hatcher's walls to keep her curtains up; to Tami Smith, my Hot Stop refillable cup for all those road trip refills; to my Little Sisters (Suzanne and Tracey), an all purpose key to unlock every lock they have been on the outside of; to Peter Tuberty, my great understanding of Computer Programming; and to Gregg and Aaron, another ride home so Mom knows what you naughty little boys do on weekends.

Ashely Boulware, being of exhausted mind and not so wonderful body, do hereby bequeath the following: to Steve Hodges — the ability to be a pet and the ability to put up with Kirsten; Kirsten Harbers — the ability not to have Kirsten fits and thanks for putting up with me; Becky (B.) Clouse — my congrats on your marriage and a combined salute to you and Uncle Willie as being the 2 greatest teachers a student could hope for.

Debbie Johnson, being of sound mind and awesome body, hereby leave the following: To Coach Watkins, the ability to coach the team without me, and also my great knowledge of basketball. To Jason, my common sense to put H.M.S. behind him his freshman year. To Tricia and Rebecca, a year's supply of (T) and hot huck on learning the use of them. To all incoming basketball players, a cushion for the bench because you will be on it for awhile.

Chad Richey, leave to Laura Barazza — all my love. To Steve Ethridge — my locker in the field house. To Mike Lincoln — a zit since he has never had one. To any football player who thinks he can play — my position.

Scott Barrow, leave to my little brother the ability to skip school and NEVER get caught! I leave Kristin my parking space hoping that she'll get here on time. To Peter Hennessee I leave my credits (I think you'll need them). To Todd goes my Auburn stickers! Kristen . . . I do! To Gregg G. the $2 I owe him from the Auburn-'Bama game.

Chuck Ingram, of warped mind and little body leave: to Melany Woodard, all the grippers in the world, my they drive you crazy; and to Hank Gardner, all the wilderness you'll need for a good senior year; and last, but not least, to J. D. Inman, all the credits you'll need to graduate in '87½.

We, Beth Garvin, Annette Genoble, and Denise Williamson, hereby leaving Franklin High School leave to the "Peanut Gang" the ability to make John Travolta shoes at band camp, "When the lights are on."

I, Barry T. Fly, being of sound mind and body, hereby leave to Paul Fishley my parking spot in front and a "Johnny on the spot" for you at the football games.

We, Kris Baxley and Ericka Ross, of warped mind and bodies leave our ability to laugh at the stupidest things to Kristi Beakly, our flashlights to Brian Reed, our banana peels to Miss Parrish along with some Dristan for her cold. To Wesley Feilds we leave our locker so he will have something to read in the mornings . . . To Mary Hatcher (because she will probably be here next year) a watch that works.

I, Andy Clarkson, leave: to the golf team — the ability to go out and pick up girls on the golf course. To Mrs. Pace, Mrs. Williams, and Mrs. Everson — the ability to tell someone "I'll Kill You." To Tracy Humphrey and Shelley King — I leave my love and friendship.

I, Carson Timothy Danely, being of little mind and sound body hereby leave the following . . . To Mrs. Williams I leave mine and Sherry's collection of gum that is stuck in our lockers. To Miss Crowell I leave you all my excuses for being late. To the cafeteria staff I leave the memories of me giving them a hard time about the food. And to Mrs. Everson I leave all of my wise cracks I ever Made, and to Coach Chapman I leave the upcoming class, good luck with them.

I, Robert Becker, being of sound mind and body, give: to Stacie Goedheart, the memories of, well, you know; to Scott Krueger, my mustang. You have to pay for the repairs, and I give him the patience to put up with Karen W. for at least another year.

I, Jacquelyne Osbourne, leave: to Kim P. and Laura Beth H., P. mold, may you use it well; to Lisa B. and Tammy J., all our wild and crazy days, may we have many more tame and crazy days; to JROTC and 1st Hargrow, a new typist; to Jill Orange, a Psychology license because she deserves it after hearing all my problems for four years; and to Joey, the knowledge that I love him.

I, Lisa McCall, hereby leave my ability to get a kiss in the hall without getting caught to John Pearre (way to go Heuy!).

I, Stacey Hargrove, being of unsound mind and short body do hereby leave my Chevy El Camino to Kim McPeak (may it treat you better than it did me); to E. R., my common sense and ability to be quiet; to Miss America 1959 (Mo Hatcher), my be-bops and my bathing suit with the hole in the knee.

I, Roy Beard, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave.

I, Iris Beech, do hereby leave: to Mrs. Pamela Carter, all abilities to trip in Mrs. Parrish's room; to Kim Menifee, all my intelligence (since she has none); and to Tina Burns, I leave her baby my Dimples.

I, Ashleigh Thomas, being of completely irrational mind and questionable body, do hereby bequeath the following: to J. R. and K. H., the ambition to graduate before your children do; to R. T., the ability to go blonde . . . not green!; and to J. B. T. II, lots of love and happiness. (yea HHS).

I, Lisa Taylor, do hereby leave my mind, lovely body, and soul to Lawanda Hodge; and my good ole saying, "You better ask somebody about me" to Debera Patterson.

I, Stephen Craig Adams, being a big, round pound of sound in body, and of warped mind, hereby leave my progressively falling grades to my brother, money for voice lessons to Amy Aiken, my band shoes to Jim Effinger, my charm to Shane Pantall, and my extended sympathy to future FHS students.

I, Sherry Jackson, do hereby bequeath the following: to the future leaders of the French Horn section, the ability to cut up during practice and not get caught; to Mrs. Houghland, the ability to make "Master Teacher" without memorizing a lesson.

I, Laurie Holloway, being of sound mind and body give to: to K. J. Grossholz — I leave you my house because you live in the boonies. To Tammy Hahn — I am willing to give you some of my weight so you won't float away. To Elizabeth Wells — the ability and will to make it to the top and be the best actress you can be. To the guys at lunch — I leave you a lifetime supply of Franklin High Lunches because you seem to like mine so much. To the kids from church (F.B.C. off.) — the best of luck in everything they do, say, hear, etc. . . .

I, Cynthia Thomas, being of sound mind and body, I leave Roni Adair my ability to get through school, and stay in trouble. To Mellise Neught — the ability to leave school for lunch. To Vanessa Patton — my ability to put up with Roni and Mark. To Jack N. — my ability to pass, and have fun at pep rallies, and put up with Roni.

ROTARY AWARD

Corey Prince

This year Corey Prince received the Rotary Award. Corey has been very involved in school activities. While attending Franklin High School he has participated in several clubs such as the Spanish Club, the Jets Club, the History Club, and the Prom Committee. Working with people and being a leader, are two things Corey has enjoyed about working with the Student Council, of which he was President during his senior year. In the future Corey hopes to become a successful engineer.

DAR AWARD

Marni Greuel

Marni Greuel is this year's recipient of the DAR Award. She has been in the band for three years. Marni has enjoyed being in the guard and has formed a lot of close friendships through her experiences. She was Vice-President of the Student Council and was involved in organizing many events that took place at Franklin High this year. Among Marni's other interests are FGC, JETS Club, and the National Honor Society.

Girls' State/Boys' State

The recipient of Boys' State this year is Mac Shuford. He is the Junior Class Boys' Vice President, and is very active in Youth Legislature. He has also been a member of the football and track teams.

Girls' State goes to Debbie Damon. She is Secretary of the Student Council, and a member of the French Club. She represented Franklin at the math contest. Debbie is also an important part of the girls' soccer team.

Both Mac and Debbie are very deserving of these awards.

Sewanee Award

This year's winner of the Sewanee Award is Lori Breaux. She is active as editor of the Annual Staff and as Junior Class Girls' Vice President. She also participated in this year's Mock Trial program. Congratulations, Lori!

The 1986 Cross Country team won 3 while losing 4 dual meets. However, they had strong showings in all of those meets. The strengths of the team were Senior Jeff Chapman and Sophomore Greg Crockett. Jeff was named All-District, All-NIL (Nashville Interscholastic League), and All-Metro. Greg was also named to the All-District team. Jeff finished 2nd in the NIL while Greg finished 11th. Jeff advanced to the Region where he finished runner-up by a mere second. His strong showing sent him to the State meet where he finished 7th overall. His best finish was 15:24 in the 3 mile event.

GOLF

Franklin's boys and girls golf teams started the year with great expectations. The boys team led by Seniors Andy Clarkson, Chuck Ayars, and newcomer Anders Janmyr had plenty of talent and experience. The girls were led into the season by the experience of Senior Donna Joslin. Both teams were successful but fell short of their goals. No less than seven male golfers competed daily for the top 4 spots, and when the season was over only a 2 stroke average separated all seven. Highlights of the season were Chuck Ayars going to the Region and Sophomore Andrea Brewer missing going to the State by 2 strokes. Also, the boys team shot a season low of 146 against FRA.

Cheryl!

Hey - where do I begin? So much has happened between us in just a little amount of time. We have definately done a lot of growing up together. Don't you think? There will always be terrific times for us to remember and then there were those not-so-terrific times but we'll just forget about all of these. I'll never forget the girl at Kroger, Applebee's, or riding with you in a car that you're driving. I'll definately remember never to eat ice cream if I'm riding with you (ha-ha) I guess you know by now that I'm here for you no matter what may happen. Some things never change and one of those things is my special feelings that I have for you. I could never hate you or even be mad at you for a couple of weeks. Somehow, I think that a friendship like ours will last forever. I love you Cheryl. You deserve so much in life. Go for whatever you want. I know that one of those things is Chris. Cheryl, you've got him. He loves you so much. I know ya'll will always be together. You

MODEL — U.N.

Franklin High School was proud to send eight students to the 4th annual Model United Nations. The purpose of the Model U.N., sponsored by the Y.M.C.A., is to teach students about international affairs and give them first-hand experience in diplomacy and negotiations on an international scale.

The two delegations represented by our school were Sweden and Brazil. Members of the delegations researched and wrote proposals which were presented before the Model United Nations General Assembly.

YOUTH LEGISLATURE

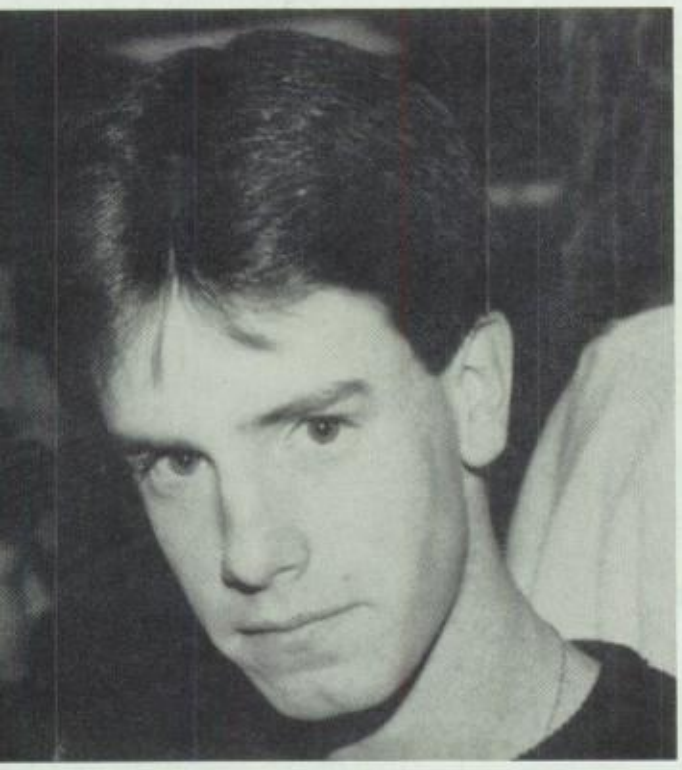
This year Franklin High School sent nine students to participate in the 4th Youth Legislature, sponsored by the Y.M.C.A. Over 400 students rom the state attended.

The students wrote legislation that was presented in a committee and on ne floor of the House and Senate. The typical day required the students to e at the Capitol for about twelve hours, during which they heard and oted on legislation, attended committee meetings and learned the judicial nd legislative process of the state of Tennessee.



REST ASSURED

FHS Drama class did the play Rest Assured, A Comedy in Three Acts. It was directed at various times by Jeff "The Veg" Duran; Steve "Erp" Cotton, Jennifer ". . ." Hassler, and Marla "Clear as Mudd" Smith. Here are some quotes from this Quasi-amusing play: "Phone Mildred!"; "Thats me name, Jake."; "I'm Leaving . . . Again!"; "I'ma come to talka for Joe."; "Golly."; "All I do is work here."; "Holy Smoke!"; ". . . And 83¢."; "I want to be the Worlds Greatest Female Wrestler."; "Oh Luigi!" (with passion); "I'll teach you neophytes some discipline."; "You're Fired!"; "Ahhhhh, mortal life was never like this."; "Let me see your tongue."; "I refuse to be dead, I just won't be a party to it!" I had 14 husbands and they all died!"; "I had to watch Joe, Mama."; "I'm Mr. Black, your friendly undertaker, I'm here about your husband. It seems he died."; "He was goot man, ya."; "I'm vice-president of Brubaker and Brubaker . . ."; "We're playing games, Luigi is stampeding."; and "Philip for goodness sakes!"; also certain bells.

Cheryl,
Well, this has been a great year and we only have 2 more 2 go! I wish we could have been better friends this year but we both know that ended after our wild summer maybe we can still be better friends next year b/c I will be able 2 drive + my mom will never know where I go, but they call me sometime over summer! I don't sneak out any more! I assume you don't either! Well, maybe next year we will have some classes together. I hope so! You're really sweet, + I'll always remember the good times we had! (Remember the "Russians") Well, C-Ya!

♡ Always,
Tammy

Don't Party 2-hard over summer! ☺

Cheryl,

Hey there! Well, one more year has gone by and it's almost time for summer. Do you think we can top the last one? yes! I don't think so. Hopefully another C+T will come along and we will sweep them off their feet! (Just Like Last Time! HA HA!) !!! You are really special to me still. God knows we've had some really good times and some really serious problems, but obviously we've made it through them! (somehow.) We've had a really rough year but things are starting to mellow out a little. Thank-you for always being there and I hope I've helped you just as much!

I ♡ U!

Cheryl,

Well the year is over WOW, (Thank God) but the summer has just begun!! I hope this Summer you & I can start a New friendship. Over the past two yrs. we've said alot of unnessary comments about eachother. It's true and you know it, It's almost like we've supposed to hate each other. but I believe that all that can change and I hope you do too.

HAVE A GREAT SUMMER!

Cheryl,
Hey sweetie! It has been great knowing you this year, and I am glad that we have become friends. Biology was great this year 4+9 1+9, well, it wasn't that bad. I hope that we will have more classes together next year, so we can become even better friends. I will miss you over the summer so you better keep in touch.

Love ya,
Amy J.

Cheryl,

Hey! Whats up? Youve had a great year, huh. I can honestly say that this has probably been the worst year of your life, except for meeting me, right? I thought so. Believe me, you have had your share of problems, its about time for your luck to change don't you think. We have had some good times but we've also had our bad times. You have been a great friend to me and I hope you'll stay that way. You have done more for me than anyone I know and I appreciate it. I know I have shit on you many times and I'm sorry for that. I hope you know I would never intentionally hurt you. I know you say that you don't want me to leave. But believe me, many things that are a lot better are in store for you. We will always be friends, so don't worry about it. I hope you and Chris work everything out to have the perfect relationship that everyone wants. You are a great friend and I'll never forget you.

Love ya,

Brent

Cheryl,
I don't know quite what to say.
But first I have to thankyou for the answers on the history exam though they weren't always right.
Have a GREAT summer
see you next year
